

Do not overturn New Jersey's Do Not Call law. I receive 2-3 calls DAILY on my cell phone. This is not only annoying, but uses up my cell phone minutes. This may be good for the phone company and the telemarketers, but it is harmful to my budget when I have to pay overage charges for excessive minutes.